ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- A former spouse becomes ineligible upon the last day of the calendar month in which the divorce becomes final. The Benefits Office must receive the divorce decree within 60 days of divorce in order to offer COBRA Continuation Coverage. If you do not notify the Benefits Office when you divorce, you will be responsible for reimbursing the Plan for all charges that were paid by the Plan on behalf of your former Spouse while he or she was not eligible for coverage. Any stepchild(ren) associated with the former spouse will also be removed the same day as the former spouse.
- Your natural child will be covered for first 90 days from birth without a birth certificate.
- List all current eligible dependents when adding a new dependent.
- Complete the entire beneficiary section even if the information remains the same.
- Only attach copies of required documents above. Original documents will not be returned.
- Enrollment form must be completed and received by the Benefits Office in order to become effective.

ANY PERSON WHO FILES THIS FORM CONTAINING FALSE, INCOMPLETE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION MAY BE GUILTY OF A CRIMINAL ACT PUNISHABLE UNDER LAW AND MAY LOSE NEI BENEFIT COVERAGE.
